

Instruction

Curriculum Design

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction is the agent for the design, construction, recommendations for adoption, evaluation and revision of curriculum.

The District recognizes the important role that employees play in the development of curriculum, assessment and instruction.

Accordingly, the District encourages the participation of employees on committees which are formed for making recommendations to the Board of Education.

Legal Reference:

Policy adopted: April 11, 1977

Policy edited: August 21, 2000

Administrative regulation revised: July 16, 2018