

PRESS RELEASE: Racine PTA Council 2021 Scholarship recipients announced

The Racine PTA Council has announced the winners in its annual scholarship program. This year, 16 graduating seniors from Racine Unified High Schools received scholarships donated by the Council, its member PTAs/PTSAs, and individuals who partner with the Council in this endeavor.

This year's scholarship recipients include the following:

The John Aceto Memorial Scholarship was presented to Ella Janis of Walden III. Emma Latus of Horlick High School received the John Aceto Memorial PTA Council Scholarship.

The Hilda Greenquist Memorial PTA Council Scholarship was presented to Horlick High School graduate Anthony Pitrof.

The Onnink Family Scholarships were given to Elizabeth Hanstedt of Horlick High School and Rachel Christensen of Case High School.

The Russ and Mary Carlsen Science Scholarship was presented to Anthony Ortiz of Case High School. The Russell L. Carlsen Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Madeline Mars of Case High School. The Dan Grosse Memorial Scholarship went to Sebastian Woyach of Horlick High School.

The two Jim and Carla Wilks Scholarships were presented to Mayle Aburto and Elisabeth Greulich, both of Park High School.

The two Theo and Jan Abrahamson Engineering/STEM Scholarships were awarded to Kyle Waiss of Case High School and Laurel Sutherland, also of Case High School.

Kade Bissen, a graduate of Walden III received the Roosevelt Elementary PTA Scholarship.

The two Domino's Pizza Scholarships were awarded to Joseph Skantz of Case High School and Riley Glover of Horlick High School.

The Joan Dykstra PTA Council Scholarship was awarded to Case graduate Marija Markovic.

The Racine PTA Council is made up of representatives from the PTAs and PTSAs in the Racine Unified School District. The scholarship program started in 1954 with a single award of $100 and has grown steadily since that time; in the past ten years alone more than $200,000 in scholarships has been awarded to deserving RUSD students.
